Students of Millennium School of Business (MSOB) won accolades for their case study at the National Conference on Transformational Leadership held at SRCC and bagged the second position at the national level event. Titled ‘Leveraging Leadership to Redefine Business’ by MBA students Shivani Shukla and Ankit Parnami with the case study focused on the visionary leadership of Mr. Rajiv Vij (the founder and CEO of Easycabs and Carzonrent), an entrepreneur and how his commitments to implement it, not only brought about exponential growth to his venture but also transformed the rules of the game of his industry.

http://educationweek.in/ew/students-of-millennium-school-of-business-bag-second-position-for-case-study-on-transformational-leadership/
Students of Millennium School of Business bag second position for case study on transformational leadership

Students of Millennium School of Business (MSOB) won accolades for their case study at the National Conference on Transformational Leadership held at SRCC and bagged the second position at the national level event. Titled ‘Leveraging Leadership to Redefine Business’ by MBA students Shivani Shukla and Ankit Parnami with the case study focused on the visionary leadership of Mr. Rajiv Vij (the founder and CEO of Easycabs and Carzonrent), an entrepreneur and how his commitments to implement it, not only brought about exponential growth to his venture but also transformed the rules of the game of his industry.

News 4 Education is an online portal which covers news and updates related to schools, colleges, admission alerts etc. It has around than 20,000 visitors daily.
Students of Millennium School of Business bag second position for case study on transformational leadership

Students of Millennium School of Business (MSOB) won accolades for their case study at the National Conference on Transformational Leadership held at SRCC and bagged the second position at the national level event. Titled ‘Leveraging Leadership to Redefine Business’ by MBA students Shivani Shukla and Ankit Parnami with the case study focused on the visionary leadership of Mr. Rajiv Vij (the founder and CEO of Easycabs and Carzonrent), an entrepreneur and how his commitments to implement it, not only brought about exponential growth to his venture but also transformed the rules of the game of his industry.

http://educationweek.in/ew/students-of-millennium-school-of-business-bag-second-position-for-case-study-on-transformational-leadership/

Education Week is an online portal which covers news, technology, schools, colleges, admissions etc. It has around 16,000 visitors daily.